

Welcome to Camp Dolomites

Welcome to your new home!!!.....

Camp Dolomites is not your regular camp, it's a paradise within a paradise, where people who love sport, the outdoors and keeping fit, can do almost any activity they wish.

The picture to your left overlooks the playground where Camp Dolomites' guests get their taste of the real DOLOMITES!

We get the chance to spoil you with gorgeous scenery, spectacular mountains, wild animals, fresh air, good food and the relaxing environs you need on your next holiday or training stint.

The Fiemme Valley is situated between Trento and Predazzo in Italy's famous Dolomites, a gorgeous green valley with ski slopes on either side of, capturing the flowing torrent of the Avvisio

Behind is the "cathedrals in the sky" spiking out of the ground to enormous heights, only to be discovered by bike, foot, skis..... Running parallel to the Avvisio, are sealed and unsealed bike trails, ski runs, thousands of hiking trails, Nordic Walking trails, outdoor rock climbing equipped areas, sports fields, equestrian centre, pools, rapids..... the list goes on.....

Host to the 2008 Giro d'Italia, the FIS Nordic World Ski Championships in 2013, home of the Italian National Ski Team - Fiamme Gialle and the gateway to Italy's Dolomites!

Our expert guides, staff, trainers, teachers, hosts and residents offer you a holiday that can be filled with hours of your favourite activity or a mix of many!

The Management at Camp Dolomites